Indonesia PDP Law Awareness Training

Self-paced online training (video) · 10 modules · about 110 min of video · about 3 hours in total · English, with captions

Understand Indonesia's Personal Data Protection Law, Law 27 of 2022: who it covers, the lawful bases and consent, data subject rights, security, breach notices, transfers abroad, sanctions and your own role at work.

WHO IT IS FOR

Employees, team leaders and managers of Indonesian companies, and of overseas companies whose processing affects people in Indonesia or Indonesian citizens abroad, including e-commerce, logistics, fintech, health, BPO and IT services staff.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Explain why the PDP Law exists, its key dates and the role of the supervising agency
- Recognise general and specific personal data and the roles of controller and processor
- Describe the six lawful bases, valid explicit consent and the information people must receive
- Recognise data subject requests and the three-day response times in the Law
- Protect personal data and report a suspected breach at once, so the three-day notice can be met
- Describe the rules for transfers abroad, the sanctions and offences, and your own role
