Philippines Data Privacy Act and DPO Training

Self-paced online training (video) · 12 modules · about 2.5 hours of video · about 4.5 hours in total · English, with captions

Run data privacy compliance in a Philippine organisation as its data protection officer or compliance officer for privacy, using the Data Privacy Act of 2012, its IRR and the NPC's current circulars and advisories.

WHO IT IS FOR

Data protection officers and compliance officers for privacy, privacy, legal, compliance, HR and IT staff of Philippine organisations, and managers of BPOs and shared service centres processing personal data for local and overseas clients.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Explain RA 10173, its IRR and the NPC issuances a DPO works with every day
- Determine when your organisation acts as a personal information controller or processor, and the lawful basis for each processing
- Build a privacy management programme with records of processing, policies and a privacy impact assessment
- Handle data subject requests and draft privacy notices, outsourcing contracts and data sharing agreements
- Register the DPO and data processing systems with the NPC and keep the registration current
- Manage a security incident and a personal data breach within the NPC's deadlines
