Thailand PDPA Awareness Training

Self-paced online training (video) · 10 modules · about 105 min of video · about 3 hours in total · English, with captions

Understand Thailand's Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562: who it covers, consent and the other lawful bases, sensitive data, people's rights, security and breach notices, transfers abroad, penalties and your role.

WHO IT IS FOR

Employees, team leaders and managers of organisations in Thailand, and of overseas organisations that serve or monitor people in Thailand, including hospitality, retail, banking, health, BPO and IT services staff.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Explain why the PDPA exists, its dates and the roles of the Committee and its Office
- Recognise personal and sensitive data and the roles of controller and processor
- Describe valid consent, the six other lawful bases and the information people must receive
- Recognise data subject requests and answer access requests within thirty days
- Protect personal data and report a suspected breach at once, so the Office can be told in time
- Describe the rules for transfers abroad, the penalties and your own role
